The Pavilion

Capacity for civil ceremonies 250 & blessings 300

The bright fairy lit room with stunning chandeliers holds ceremonies either at the far end of the First Pavilion or in front of the windows, overlooking the gardens. Two double doors lead out onto our patio area to sit out and enjoy lawn games and a light tippie on warm evenings. The trees in the gardens are lit at night, with stunning views through to the fields in the distance.

The Banqueting Hall

Capacity for civil ceremonies 300 & blessings 700

The Banqueting hall is perfect for larger civil and religious ceremonies. This room can also be sectioned to accommodate smaller parties too. With doors opening out onto its own secluded garden.

The Gazebo and outdoor ceremony areas

Capacity for civil ceremony 300 & blessing unlimited

For those who have dreamed of an outdoor ceremony we have a few options to choose from, the traditionally yet beautiful gazebo or for the more adventurous bride we have four optional areas to choose from, in front of the bridge, house, in the woods or the patio area.

It's at night that the gardens, bridge and fountains are lit up beautifully

The Drawing Room

Capacity for an intimate ceremony 24 seated with 6 standing

The warm sunny traditionally decorated room is ideal for reception drinks to small and intimate ceremonies

It is also used with outside ceremonies – the bride can move from this room to the outside gazebo with bridesmaids if desired. It is a lovely space in the summer with double doors that open onto the patio with an outside bar in the gardens.

The Library

A warm and inviting room with the traditional décor of a men's club, this room is a firm favourite for wedding parties to retire at the end of an evening for a night cap.

The Dining Room

Grand and traditionally decorated in warm garnet red wallpaper and Persian rug. Another firm favourite for creative photography shots of grooms.

The Drawing Room

The warm sunny traditionally decorated room ideal for reception drinks to small and intimate wedding ceremonies, with grand doors opening out onto a pretty patio overlooking the bridge and countryside in the distance.

The Reading Room Bar

The Reading Room Bar is warm and intimate, set in the heart of the house, original beams and open fireplace add to the cosy atmosphere. It's generally used for pre and post-ceremony drinks.

Reception Drinks

It's time to mingle and start the celebrations. On sunnier days, explore the outdoor patio area and beautifully manicured gardens.

Enjoying canapés and refreshments from our quirky horse box bar. The trees will then illuminate throughout the evening, adding to the romantic atmosphere.'

We also have a fully comprehensive Vegan Menu from canapés to evening buffets
